RIKEPS Workshop

Borders, Migration, Democracy. Kant’s Cosmopolitan Legacy Towards Contemporary Political Challenges

October 28th 2021
Conveners: Nuria Sánchez Madrid (GRENIS, Department Philosophy & Society, UCM) & Paola Romero (Univ. Fribourg)

Panel 1 – The Legacy of Kant’s Legal Philosophy

9:30-10:00 - Claudio Corradetti (Univ. Roma Tor Vergeta, Italy), Jus Cogens and the Moral Presuppositions of Public International Law.

10:00-10:30 - Reza Mosayebi (Univ. Bochum, Germany), Kant on the mutual dependence between ius civitatis, ius gentium, and ius cosmopoliticum.

10:30-11:00 - Gianluca Sadun Bordoni (Univ. Teramo, Italy), Cosmopolitanism and Political Realism: Kant’s Double Legacy and Contemporary Political Challenges.

11:00-11:30 Discussion Panel 1

11:30-12:00 Break

Panel 2 – Kant’s Cosmopolitanism Towards Contemporary Challenges

12:00-12:30 - Nuria Sánchez Madrid (Univ. Complutense, Spain), A Normative Account of Kant’s Cosmopolitanism.

12:30-13:00 Alice Pinheiro Walla (Univ. Bayreuth, Germany), A Kantian Theory of Global Mobility.

13:00-13:30 Karoline Reinhardt (Univ. Tübingen, Germany), Immigration and Cosmopolitan Right.

13:30-14:00 Discussion Panel 2

[To register please contact kantikeps@gmail.com]