CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

MASTER IN

“INTERNATIONAL CO-OPERATION AGAINST TRANS-NATIONAL FINANCIAL ORGANIZED CRIME”

Academic Year 2007-2008

DURATION

1 year divided in three parts:

Part 1: starting from February 2008 at the University of Teramo, consisting in 200 hours of didactic activity. The didactic activity will be held with the following schedule: Thursday afternoon, Friday morning and afternoon and Saturday morning; this calendar might undergo variations.

Part 2: starting from July 2008 an internship with international or national relevant institutions, or a research programme with scientific institutions. These activities are not compulsory for candidates.

Part 3: Candidates that have successfully concluded their internship period must elaborate and defend a final thesis (not less than 100 pages). Candidates not attending an internship must elaborate and discuss a final thesis (not less than 300 pages).

PROGRAMME

The FIRST PART of the Master Programme will consist of lectures, panel discussions, seminars, training sessions and interactive working groups on the following areas, according to the related aspects of criminology, human rights, criminal law and criminal procedure, specifically:

1. trafficking in:
 - a) human beings, especially women and children
 - b) alcohol and drugs
 - c) firearms, their parts, components and ammunitions
 - d) artistic and archaeological patrimony
2. environmental crimes, such as unlawful building, pollution, trafficking in waste, radioactive slag, animals' and plants' endangered species

3. corruption and bribery
4. brand and copyright counterfeiting
5. pharmaceutical counterfeiting and food adulteration
6. money laundering and financial crime
7. terrorism and terrorism financing
8. terrorism and biotechnologies
9. cyber crime

and the substantive action undertaken by the following national and international organisations:

- DNA (Direzione Nazionale Antimafia)
- EUROJUST (European Union's Judicial Cooperation Unit) – Permanent Mission of Italy
- EUROPOL
- INTERPOL
- OCSE (Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development) - Permanent Mission of Italy
- OLAF (European Anti-Fraud Office)
- UNESCO (United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization) – Commissione Nazionale Italiana
- UNODC (United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime)

The main focus of the SECOND PART of the Master Programme will be to work as a stagiaire/intern in the field of national or international institutions (stage or internship). This practical experience will be related to the subject of a research project chosen by the candidate.

The THIRD PART of the Master Programme entails submitting a written thesis on a specific subject chosen by the candidate.

GOAL OF THE MASTER PROGRAMME

The goal of this Master Programme is to contribute to the creation of a new generation of law practitioners and experts, able to establish and reinforce the cooperation among states, institutions, organizations and citizens, with a focus on contrasting trans-national financial organized crime, to managing international co-operation in this field and to promoting new and efficient measures to prevent and fight this type of crime.

The goal of the Master Programme, which foresees the contribution of international experts and University professors in the field, will allow the comparison of various cultures and approaches, in the complex and crucial area of contrasting trans-national financial organized crime.

EXPECTED RESULTS

As a final objective, the course aims to train operators who will be able to work in the field of international cooperation against trans-national organized crime; therefore, being able to actively participate in the tasks carried out by an existing international organization in this sector.

Another expected result is that of placing the University of Teramo in a network of Italian and foreign Universities together with international organizations so as to exploit both the theory and the practice in a multicultural and international training process.

LANGUAGES

Programme activities will be in English.

EXAMS AND THESIS

- 1) Two intermediary written exams, necessary to verify the individual preparation of the candidates.
- 2) Final thesis, to be defended before a Board of representatives of the partner institutions (universities and organizations). Permission to defend their thesis will be granted to those who have attended at least 80% of the didactic activity hours and passed the intermediary written examinations.
- 3) All Master activities will be considered for the final evaluation, expressed in 100/100 cum laude.

CREDITS AWARDED

The course work for the Master's degree adds up to a total of 60 credits.

TITLE AWARDED

Following successful completion of the final discussion, the University of Teramo will appoint the LL.M. graduates of “International Co-operation Against Trans-national Financial Organised Crime” of the Academic Year 2007-2008.

travel, subsistence costs in Teramo and during the internship period.

PERSONAL DATA TREATMENT

According to and in compliance with art. 13, D. Lgs. 30/06/2003, n°196 – “Personal Data Processing Code” – personal data will be collected and treated, including usage of computerised tools, exclusively in relation to the proceedings for which they are provided and may be used by the Italian Ministry for Education, University and Research, (MIUR) besides the University of Teramo, for statistical purposes. Providing the data is obligatory for the selection and admission process, which could not otherwise take place. The organisation responsible for the processing of data is the University of Teramo, Viale Crucioli 122. The student may have access to the provided data, in compliance with art. 7, D. Lgs 196/2003.

According to art.7 of D. Lgs n° 196/2003, rights regarding the treatment of personal data are as follows: The person who has provided personal data is entitled to: 1) obtain confirmation that data have been collected and exist, whether or not processed, and receive intelligible communication of them; 2) be informed about: a) origin of the personal data; b) purposes and treatment procedures; c) the logic of the treatment carried out with the support of a computer; d) details of all responsible personnel entitled to the treatment (as from art.5.2); e) subjects or categories to whom data can be transmitted or who may come to know about them; 3) obtain also: a) updating, amendment of or addition to the data; b) cancellation, transformation in an anonymous form or blockage of data treated in infringement of the law, including of those the conservation of which is not necessarily related to the purposes for which they were collected or later treated; c) a statement that the provisions as per (a) and (b) have been made known, in terms of content too, to those to whom the data were transmitted, except in cases in which such a measure is impossible or would imply the use of clearly disproportionate means in comparison to the protected right. 4) oppose completely or partially: a) to the treatment of personal data for legitimate reasons, even if connected to the purposes of the data collection; b) to the treatment of personal data aiming at the sending of advertisements, the carrying out of direct selling or of market researches. For any matter not specifically covered in the present document, we refer to the current law and dispositions.
