INTERNATIONAL MASTER LL.M. INTERNATIONAL CO-OPERATION AGAINST TRANS-NATIONAL FINANCIAL ORGANIZED CRIME 9th Edition

Academic Year 2015/16

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

GOAL OF THE MASTER PROGRAMME

The goal of the Master Programme is to contribute to the creation of a new generation of law practitioners and experts, able to establish and reinforce the cooperation among states, institutions, organizations and citizens, with a focus on contrasting trans-national financial organized crime, to managing international co-operation in this field and to promoting new and efficient measures to prevent and fight this type of crime. The aim of the Master Programme, which foresees the contribution of international experts and University professors in the field, will allow the comparison of various cultures and approaches, in the complex and crucial area of contrasting trans-national financial organized crime.

LANGUAGES

Programme activities will be in English.

EXPECTED RESULTS

As a final objective, the course aims to train operators who will be able to work in the field of international cooperation against trans-national organized crime; therefore, being able to actively participate in the tasks carried out by an existing international organization in this sector. Another expected result is that of placing the University of Teramo in a network of Italian and foreign Universities together with international organizations so as to exploit both the theory and the practice in a multicultural and international training process.

DURATION

The training is divided in three parts:

Part 1: starting at the University of Teramo, consisting in about 200 hours of didactic activity, normally held three days weekly, the calendar and schedule might undergo variations.

Part 2: starting after the end of part 1 an internship with national, European and International relevant institutions, or a research programme with scientific institutions. The internship period is not compulsory for candidates.

Part 3: Candidates that have successfully concluded their internship period must elaborate and defend a final thesis (not less than 100 pages).

Candidates not attending an internship must elaborate and discuss a final thesis (not less than 300 pages).

The final thesis will be defended before a Board of representatives of the partner institutions (universities and organizations). Admission to the internship and final thesis defence will be granted to those who have attended at least 80% of the didactic activity hours and passed the two intermediary written examinations, necessary to verify the individual preparation of the candidates.

PROGRAMME

The FIRST PART of the Master Programme will consist of lectures, panel discussions, seminars, training sessions (in Teramo University or in internet platform) and interactive working groups on the following areas, according to the related aspects of criminology, human rights, criminal law and criminal procedure, specifically:
